DEFENDANT: TIANNA CHRISTINA CORDOVA

CASE NUMBER: 2:18-cr-00208-RFB-DJA

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. ~~If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.~~
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

5. Computer Monitoring and Software – You must submit your computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search. You must warn any other people who use these computer or devices capable of accessing the Internet that the devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that there is a violation of a condition of supervision and that the computer or device contains evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) you use.

6. Medical Release Forms/Medical Prescriptions – You shall be required to provide release forms to the probation officer so that probation officer may randomly check prescriptions. You shall be required to inform the probation officer regarding all medical prescriptions obtained as it relates to medical conditions for the first 1,825 days of supervision.

7. Community Service – You must complete 900 hours of community service annually for the entire duration of supervision. You must provide your schedule one week in advance to the probation officer. The probation officer will supervise the participation in the community service program by approving the program (agency, frequency or participation, etc.). You must provide written notification of completed community service hours to the probation officer.

8. Drug Counselor – You will be required to serve as a drug counselor to provide drug counseling in the community you reside.

*9. Education – You will be required to obtain your GED degree, obtain a 4 year college degree and an advanced degree in education as it relates to drug treatment to be completed within the term of probation, subject to modification as needed.

* 10. Home Confinement with Location Monitoring – You will be monitored by the form of location monitoring technology indicated below for a period of 730 days/24 months, and you must follow the rules and regulations of the location monitoring program. You must pay for the costs of the program.

* 10a. GPS Monitoring (including hybrid GPS).

* 10b. Home Detention – You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the probation officer. Home Detention will be served both before and after the period of intermittent confinement.

* 11. Intermittent Confinement – You must serve a total of 180 days/6 months of intermittent confinement; to be served in the last 180 days/6 months of the first year of probation. The schedule and designated facility for intermittent continuous confinement to be arranged by defense counsel and marshals' department. You must follow the rules and regulations of the designated facility.

* 12. Status Conference – You must attend a status conference hearing before this Court, within 60 days of release from BOP custody to review your plan regarding the conditions of probation imposed.

*Curfew condition removed.
